

The Board of Directors of Carleton Condominium Corporation No. 486 (the "Corporation") are vitally interested in the health and safety of its employees. Protection of employees from injury or occupational disease is a major continuing objective. The Corporation will make every effort to provide a safe and healthy work environment. All supervisors and workers must be dedicated to the continuing objective of reducing risk of injury.

The Corporation, as employer, is ultimately responsible for worker health and safety. The Corporation gives its promise that every reasonable precaution will be taken for the protection of workers.

The Corporation will be held accountable for the health and safety of workers under their supervision. Supervisors are responsible to ensure that machinery and equipment are safe and that workers work in compliance with established safe work practices and procedures. Workers must receive adequate training in their specific work tasks to protect their health and safety. Workers should avoid hazardous conditions and should promptly notify the property manager of any unsafe chemicals, products or conditions.

Every worker must protect his or her own health and safety by working in compliance with the law and with safe work practices and procedures established by the Corporation, from the president to the workers.

It is in the best interest of all parties to consider health and safety in every activity. Commitment to health and safety must form an integral part of this Condominium.
